STARS LEAD IN FIELDING; YES THAT IS TRUE

Chief, Balls, Dunlap, Moore and Hawkins Head Big Hitters in League to Date

If someone had told you that the All Stars were leading the Oahu Service League in fielding, you might not believe it if you had seen them on Decoration Day. Nevertheless it is true, as this organization has made but eight errors in four games to date. They also lead in sacrifice hits, and stolen bases. The Wreckers have the honors in hitting.

Chief and Balls, both of the 32nd Infantry are leading in hitting, with Dunlap of the All Stars in third position, ahead of Moore and Hawkins of the 25th Infantry. Stratton, Lang, Akana and Charley Lyman are leading in stolen bases, and Hollis and Lyman lead in sacrifice hits. The averages for the league series is as follows:

M'KINLEY WINS FROM MILLS IN WEIRD BATTLE

Manoa Valley Lads Kick Ball All Over Lot, While McKinley Plays Good Ball

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE

	Won	Lost	Pct.
St. Louis	5	1	.833
McKinley	5	2	.714
Mills	4	3	.571
Punahou	2	3	.400
Kamehameha	0	7	.000

McKinley high school gave Mills a hard thrust yesterday afternoon at Manoa when they sent the Manoa Valley team out of the running for the pennant in a weird exhibition, which ended up with a score of 8 to 7. McKinley downed Mills without strength, which shows that the high school team has some reserve strength. Tsukiyama, who plays the shortfield position, was sent on the mound, and pitched good enough ball to win.

Ahn Soon Nam was sent to the firing line by Mills, but after McKinley had annexed a number of runs, he was jerked, and Quong went into the box and pitched better ball. Mills opened the gates wide throughout and put up the worst exhibition seen in the interscholastic this year.

Sunn Hung and Okino started things in the batting line too late, and Mills had a runner on third, but Han Kee tried to pull a steal of home and was nipped at the rubber. The feature of the game was the work of the infielders trying to play ball.

McKinley will have an opportunity to strengthen their stand in the Pacific League when they meet the Filipinos on Sunday. The Filipinos have two good pitchers, and gave the Braves a hard game, but the McKinley team feels confident that they will down the squad coached by Lang Akana, when the two teams clash at Moiliili tomorrow.

VETERAN ON DEATHBED SENDS SON TO WAR

JOLIET, Ill.—Francis B. Young, 74 years old, a Civil war veteran, died here recently. In his last moments he called his only son Edward to his bedside and said:
"Your great great grandfather died in the Revolution; your great grandfather died in the war of 1812, and I was in the Civil war with four of my brothers, three of whom were killed. I want you to enlist and keep up the fighting honor of your family."
Edward enlisted in the army.

Professor George Balch of New York originated American Flag Day. He conducted a private school, and on every 14th of June he held special exercises of a patriotic character and every pupil carried a flag.

PORTUGUESE JUNIORS TO MEET ST. LOUIS SUNDAY

The Portuguese Juniors will meet the St. Louis Juniors at Athletic Park on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. In the second game of the day the Japanese will meet the Chinese. The Chinese are favorites and should win, as the Japanese team has been playing a weird article of ball of late, their pitching staff has not been holding up. The St. Louis team is expected to win from the Portuguese, although the Portuguese squad has shown an improvement of late and may spring a surprise on the Saint organization.

The United States court of appeals has affirmed the decision of the federal district court of New York holding that the De Forest Telegraph and Telephone company had infringed a certain patent of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company of America.
